NATURE CONNECTIONS

A solo exhibition by Michelle Hallinan

About the artist Michelle Hallinan

I am a nature lover and adventurer, who loves to be immersed in the natural world exploring the colours, textures, and patterns.

I feel connected to the natural environment when I am among the wide-open expanses of land, the coastal textures of rocks and water, or when I am intrigued by the micro or leaves, bark, shells, and internal landscape of fruit.

Printmaking techniques such as etching, being a tactile medium, have enabled me to express my experience of textures and patterns in nature. Recently, I've been experimenting with colour through monoprints and mixed-media collages.

Making my work is a meditative experience in which I reconnect with the source of my inspiration and my own experience.

ABOUT THE EXHIBITION

Michelle Hallinan immerses herself in the natural world, intrigued by the textures and colours of rocks and tree trunks and how they weather and change over time with wind and water.

Mixed media works on paper and sculptures inspired by interactions between coastal and bushland environs.
